

WE ARE ALL BRETHREN

Olumba Olumba Obu

First Bible Lesson: Matthew 23:8

"But be ye not called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren."

Second Bible Lesson: John 10:16

"And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd."

Golden Text: Galatians 3:28-29

"There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye all are one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Brethren, after reading the three texts, it will be clear to you, what the mind of God, the mind of the Son of God and the mind of the Holy Spirit is. Before delving into the discourse of the gospel, I want to narrate to you the genealogy story. It is said that the generation of the third grade, that is of the grandchildren stands polluted. You are not to blame because you do not know how this generation came about, but I am now going to tread a little so that you can realize that all the inhabitants of the world are one.

Do not claim the nationality of Nigeria, or Britain or United States of America; or to have belonged to the African, European or Asian continent. If you do that, you are only expressing shortsightedness because you do not know the full implication of what you claim. If two persons meet for the first time, unless each of them introduces himself and traces his genealogy, each will claim he has never known the other. Sometimes, you will be ignorant that your great grandfather is related to his great grandfather; maybe, he went to live in India and yours lived in Ethiopia. It is only when you meet and introduce yourselves; and trace your pedigree trees, that you will know the extent of your relationship with him.

As we are here, we do not know that some of us came from India, some from Russia, others from Ghana, or Cameroon or America and other places. It is only when the pedigree tree is traced that you will actually ascertain the relationship, and that you both come from the same stock. The tracing of the genealogy is a different story, and it is by way of digression, but that is not the theme for our sermon today. A great many people complain that the words of the Father are not easy to understand. This is true because unless you possess spiritual ears, you cannot hear and understand even one word. Even the village you hail from, when the elders start to narrate the history of the village, you will not understand unless you have the ears to hear. What is causing confusion in the world is that there is no honest person. If we were to have even a single person of truth, then everything would have been alright; but our problem is that we are hungry people. Assure me how a hungry person can tell the truth.

It is sin that brings about division; it has also brought about hunger. That was why our Lord Jesus Christ said when He the Comforter, even the spirit of truth comes; He will lead us unto the accurate wisdom of the truth. There is nothing else, whether man or angel, or tree, or water, or spirit or any other thing conceivable that can lead man to the accurate wisdom of the truth except the Holy Spirit. Since our Lord Jesus Christ made the far reaching statement, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am," (John 8:58) He is, therefore, the only person who has the right to reveal the secrets of this Kingdom unto mankind. I believe that you all have ears to hear.

In the past it used to be said, let those who have ears to hear; but now, you have all been given the ears to hear because this is the era in which every person has to hear the word of God. Do not be anxious about what is going on because, when God predicts; unless it is the fullness of time, the prediction cannot be manifested. When he says a certain thing would happen, hold on to that statement, because come what may, it will come to pass as He had said. If you want to know what is in this world, and in the world to come, take up the Bible, which is the Ark of the Covenant and search diligently. It contains absolutely everything in the world. All other books you write, publish and read are useless. The only book is the Bible, which is invariably the Ark of the Covenant, the mind of God, the will of God, the plan of God, and the Covenant of God; it contains everything that has happened, and that which will happen. All other books are elementary spirits, because they contain the voice, the wisdom, the mind and the plan of man. But the Bible was written by the inspiration of God.

It was God Himself who passed through certain spiritually inspired people to write it; that is why from Genesis to the Revelation of John the Divine, the contents are but the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Do not, therefore, doubt how the whole world will be amalgamated. Do not ask any questions. If you are led by the Spirit of God, you will discover that the whole world is now invited into one fold; both the whites and the blacks are one indivisible entity. You have now come to the realization that God is one who promises and fulfills. He plans and executes. He is the truth and His words are true.

God made a promise to our father, Abraham that he would be the father of all nations at a time when Abraham had not yet begotten a child. He also showed him the land on which he would live and inherit for himself and for all his descendants. Who, in the whole wide world, can mention the location of the land given to him by God? Who can mention that one child of Abraham (not children), but his only child? You will realize that I am not a preacher, not a visioner and not a prophet, neither do I come to bear testimony; but I come to reveal God and His glory, plainly and in His totality, to mankind. This is because the Judgement Book, the Ark of the Covenant has now been brought; whoever, therefore denies that he is a child of God, should come out, and I will trace his antecedents until he will see his nakedness and accept the truth.

If a white man comes, I will call him brother; if he argues that he is not my brother, I shall trace his genealogy until he discovers where he originated from and accept that he is my brother. No person should continue to doubt. Call every person in the world to come here and look at themselves in the mirror. Whatsoever you claim to be; once you come in here, you will be revealed, so that you know yourself and depart from stupidity.

Do you conjecture that the gospel of God is spoken off-head or is preached as a result of high education, or a figment of imagination? What has Paul said? He says, "For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect." (1 Cor. 1:17) I also wish that a Muslim is brought to me, and I will ask him who his father is. I will also call him a brother; if he denies that he is my brother, I will also show him in inexplicable terms, and he will confirm and confess that he is a brother. If he is a brother, why then does he not agree with and accept me? If a white man confesses that he is my brother, why can we not sit on the same table and discuss issues of common interest?

I want to show to you that the promise which God made with Abraham, our father, is today manifested. It is said: "As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes." (Rom 11:28) God does not regret for our election. That land God promised to give to Abraham to live on; inherit and inhabit with his children, is this world, the earth; and the child promised Abraham by God refers to mankind. You are that child. Note what is read to you: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus Our Lord, and if you are of the Christ, then are you Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." (Gal 3:28-29)

You have heard that it was through what Abraham did that he became the friend of God. God also was his friend. What does it mean to be one's friend? When you begin to talk of Abraham; from where did the Christians descend? From where did the Muslims originate? From where did the Hindus come? From where did the Buddhists originate? Call yourself what you may; people of all races and creeds and faiths originated from Abraham. He is the only father of the entire world. This is why most Christians refer to God as the God of Abraham, God of Isaac and God of Jacob.

If you now begin to trace the origins of the various races, tribes, clans and ethnic groups, in the whole world; you will trace their pedigree tree to Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac, Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat the twelve prominent men we all know about, from the Bible. Ishmael was also the child of Abraham. Forget about the argument that Hagar, the mother of Ishmael hailed from Egypt; but one thing is certain, and that is Ishmael was the first son of Abraham. They have known Abraham as the father. God had assigned him specifically as the father of all the nations of the world; and assigned his children to rule. It is similar to what used to obtain traditionally in our culture; if you beget a child but you did not pay the bride price for the mother of the child, then the child will be regarded as an illegitimate child, and therefore, does not share in the inheritance of the father.

But what happens today? Once you have impregnated a woman; any child, who is born as a result of the pregnancy, belongs to you; he is your legitimate child. There is now no question of illegitimacy. If you impregnate another person's wife; (I have not said you should impregnate or have an affair with any person's wife, it is only an illustration. I want to use earthly things to illustrate a heavenly thing for you) that child is yours once the child is delivered; you take your child and the legitimate husband takes the wife away. Do not shift the ancient boundary and do not trespass. This means that the Holy Spirit has come into the world to lead you and to remove the scales from your eyes because you claim that you are wise, whereas, there is no wise man among you.

The Muslims argue that the Christians are foolish for worshipping the child of the second son of Abraham; and that they are the wise and right thinking men since they worship the child of the first son of Abraham. Who are the wise, between the Christians and Muslims? Both Christians and Muslims know Abraham. But neither do the Muslims know the Christians nor do the Christians know the Muslims; each is claiming to be wise and calling the other foolish. Which of them is foolish or wise? Both Christians and Muslims are blind leading the blind. Who is Isaac and who is Ishmael? Are the two not begotten of Abraham? This is one aspect of it.

Isaac came and begot two children, Esau and Jacob. The two of them were twins but Esau was the first to be delivered. That was why he was regarded as the first son. If Jacob was the first to come out of the mother's womb, he would have been the first son. But that it might be fulfilled that which was written in the Scriptures: "So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy." (Rom 9:16) If Esau were to know that before they were born, there had been a prophecy that the elder will serve the younger, Esau would not have struggled to come out first. He would have stayed back in the womb for a little while to allow Jacob to come out first. But since he struggled to come out first, and it was prophesied that the elder will serve the younger, and he came out as the elder, that prophecy was fulfilled in him.

But take note that knowledge will vanish away, prophecies will fall and tongues and languages will cease, but love will not pass away forever. Who are these twins, Esau and Jacob? They are two nations. Which nations are they? They symbolize the white and the black races. All whites no matter their stations and dispositions in life are the children of Jacob. In the same token, all blacks of any description and disposition are the children of Esau. So both the whites and the blacks are of the same parentage. I want a white person to argue for or against this statement. I am making this declaration from high heaven; and so I want this gospel to be written, published, disseminated, circulated and distributed to all parts of the world, to men of all walks of life; to see if their eyes will not be opened, and they confess that they had all along been foolish and in darkness. All the inhabitants of the world are brothers and sisters.

Can you tell me what excludes Esau from the family of Isaac? He was a hunter, he loved his father, and served him and he was not blameworthy; but simply because it was prophesied that the elder will serve the younger, the prophecy was fulfilled and having been fulfilled, it was forgotten. But the truth has now been resurrected. Jacob came and begot the twelve tribes of Israel. Israel was the tribe of Jacob but what about the tribe of Esau and all the tribes and nations not included among the twelve tribes of Israel. They are referred to in the second Bible lesson: "And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." (John 10:16) How many folds and how many shepherds? There must be one fold and one shepherd. In the same token, Ishmael who was cast away represents the other sheep which are not of this fold, which also must be brought under one fold and under one shepherd. Can you now realize the rationale that all mankind descended from one stock? It is therefore nonsensical for you to claim to be a Christian, or a Muslim, or a Buddhist, or a Hindu, or a Jew, or a Brotherhood because all creeds and races originated from Abraham.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said He did not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. "When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." (Mark 2:17) All the people from Adam, down to Cain are outside the fold. Cain is the other sheep which are not of this fold; all those who err and those who do not err, for reasons of their ignorance; the precious blood of our Lord Jesus Christ was shed for their sake, to redeem them all so that the gap between the various races and creeds and nations and languages and tribes might forever be bridged. That also there may be fold and one shepherd.

Upon all the sins committed by Cain; all the evils wrought by the people including sowing the seeds of division, discrimination and segregation, causing wars and rumors of war, and bringing about darkness in the world; the covenant was that only the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ would cleanse them. Since the precious blood was shed and He said on the cross, "it is finished," (John 19:30) He has forgiven all the sins of the world, and that is why He also said: "For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more." (Heb 8:12) This alone is responsible for the fact that we all belong to the same fold under one shepherd.

Our Lord Jesus Christ died for the sake of Adam and Eve, for the sake of Cain and Abel, for the sake of all those who commit one form of sin or the other, for all the sins of the world. God has never deceived and will never deceive. That is why it is said: "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more." (Heb 8:10-12) Observe that God has forgiven all our sins whether they are deliberate or mistakenly committed; and the sins of the whole world from Adam till today, He does not remember them anymore. He rejoices with all mankind and does not impute sins on any person. If He has forgiven all our sins, what are we?

Are we not all Brotherhood? All of us are brothers and sisters. A white man is your brother; the black man is a brother to the white. A white woman is your sister. Any human being in the world is a child of God, a brother, because He does not beget an angel. The first lesson will now be read. Listen attentively; however, all the inhabitants of the world have been given the ear to hear the Word of God.

1st Lesson: Matthew 23:8

"But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren."

Brethren, have you heard what is read unto you? Have I no right to address a white person as my brother? Has the white man not got the right to call me brother while I call him same? Do the citizens of the Cameroon not have the right to address Nigerians as brothers, and vice versa? Has a Muslim not got the right to address a Christian as his brother while the Christian also addresses the Muslim as a brother? Have Roman Catholic members not the right to call Protestant members brothers and vice versa? All the divisions created, all the small empires people carved out for themselves, were done when they were influenced by the work of darkness. But now the light has been emitted and darkness has taken to its heels.

There is only one monotheistic God. There is only one father, Abraham; we have only one Lord, our Lord Jesus Christ. What is the usefulness of being guided by party spirit, to claim to be a Catholic, or claim to be Methodist while others claim one church denomination or the other? Others claim to be members of secret societies: you claim to be AMORC, or Freemason, or Ogboni. Others claim they are necromancers, or wizards, or apparition or charm. However, my happiness lies in the fact that in a government, the functionaries are made up of members of various religions, members of various secret societies; thieves are also there; murderers, highway robbers, members of Ekpe, Ekpo and Obon are there; they discuss together, they eat and drink together; but if you address any of them as a brother, he will warn you not to call him a brother again. What name then should I call you?

If you do not go to Europe, you will not know that there are so many blacks in Europe. But if you go there, you may live and stay with the whites in the same apartment complex; and may marry a European woman. A white marries a black, you live together, eat together, travel and attend meetings together. When then do you call each other brethren? Do not call any person by any other name, but the name brother and sister of the same parent, under one God.

Right now, a child who is born in Europe or in America has the privilege to claim the right of citizenship; he has equal right with the white children born with him. If you marry from America, you can automatically apply for a certificate of naturalization. What is the difference?

You can at any moment declare your right of citizenship. Your child has equal right with the white children born with him. You can at any moment declare your right of citizenship in any country you have lived in. Have the scales not fallen from your eyes yet?

What is most ludicrous is that from your family, your father is a member in Wesleyan Methodist, your son is in Roman Catholic, other members of the family belong to other denominations; when you come out from your family, you argue and quarrel outside to the point of breaking and condemning yourselves; but when you come back to the house, you eat from the same plate, cook from the same pot, drink from the same cup and arrange cordial relationships between members of the family. Who do you deceive, yourself or God?

In the same token, upon the number of church denominations established in the village, if anything is done in the village, not one of the church names will be used; you will always come together as members of the same village, but within the church circles you quarrel and condemn each other. For how long will you continue to remain in darkness? What has our Lord Jesus Christ said? “And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.” (Matt 12:25) Have you not seen desolation and pestilence in the world? We are all brethren. But you say you are not my brother and I too say that I am not your brother. Because of this we fail, become poor, we die, wage war, and kill ourselves. God does not consider all these. He only regards Himself as our Father.

We are from one town or village, but you create division, holding that you are no longer from the same town. You drift to one side, and another group moves to another side. This is what brings about problems to the whole world. For one to be a liar does not stop him from being your brother. For one to be truthful does not stop him from being one with you. For him to be a fornicator does not stop him from being your brother. For one to be a necromancer does not stop him from being your brother. Only open your eyes and watch; just as God loves me, so does He love you, and every other person. As He reveals Himself to me, so does He reveal Himself to you and all others; even fishes in the water and animals in the forest. Have you therefore not realized that He is not as stupid as we are? As God protects you, so does He protect the trees, the fishes and the animals. Man cannot save himself and so the entire responsibility is His.

As He is your God, so He is my God. As He is your God, so He is their God and His God. We all have equal rights to Him. He is God of all. Therefore, call no man Lord or Teacher or Father for we are all brethren. No matter how sinful we are, God does not deny us. He has said that He will change us at the fullness of time. He will change the whole world. Even if we deny Him, He will not deny us. He remains our God forever.

You claim to be one of the ghosts. Who is God of the ghosts? Who has created the bark of trees? Is God not the Creator? You say you are bowing down to stone. Who created the stone? Is it not God? What do you mean when you say, God of heaven, God of earth? Who created the trees and stone? Why do you not call a spade a spade?

The whole world has acknowledged the existence of God on earth; He created heaven and earth. The whole Western world, the Hindus, the Muslims, the Rosicrucian members, and the necromancers know this. But why do we not worship and honour Him as God. Do not call any man God. Do not call any one father. Do not call anyone a teacher because He is the only one, who bears all these names. Why we are Brotherhood is because of being of the same nature. This shows that we are from the one original family.

Have you not seen that we are brothers? All the things that befall you are what befall the whites. The types of sickness you complain of; just as you complain of waist pain, so will a white man complain; your ways of life are also practiced by the whites. We can therefore come to the conclusion that we are all brothers.

Why we receive punishment is because we reject the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you should call no one any other name because we are brothers. But you say that a person is not your brother, because you are not born of the same mother. You rather refer to a person as your cousin, or nephew or uncle. Let our second lesson be read. Listen attentively.

2nd Lesson: John 10:16

"And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, one shepherd."

Have you therefore not realized the basis of your problem? He said, I have other sheep, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring; and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd. That is the plan of God. Do not therefore doubt what is happening now; the manifestation of one fold and one shepherd. It is not my making neither is it done by you. Rather it is the fulfillment of His words; this is His own plan. He said: "I have other sheep which are not of this fold." The Muslims are the other sheep; the necromancers, the Hindus, the whole western world, He has to gather unto Himself. They will hear His voice. Do not be surprised to see a necromancer knocking his head on the ground. See, all and sundry, all the churches, are being made one with God. Blindness in itself is a bad thing. Do not wish that you should be called blind. Half education is another great sickness.

Is it not a thing of pity for the government to say that you should lay aside things of God because it is a concern of the government? The whole government says it has nothing to do with God; that it is only the government that is important. If you call upon Christ, you will be thrown into prison. If you go to any of their houses and make mention of the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you will be questioned; "which Jesus?" The government chooses to go to work on Sundays. Companies say they have nothing to do with the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; they have no form of business with God, they are only concerned with their business. The whole government is the other sheep spoken of by our Lord Jesus Christ. A necromancer refers to a tree as his god. Those in hotels think of their drinks. They are all the other sheep. The whole world is but the children of God.

Is it not a pitiful thing to find in your town or village forty different churches with very few members in each of them? Even the forty different churches are discriminating against each other, waging war against each other, and even indulging in preparation of concoctions. Is it not a sad situation? When we are in one fold, all men, all the angels, all creations of God will be in this fold, and there will be only one shepherd.

In the past, you had thought that if you were an angel with wings, you would fly. What is the situation now? What did the angels say to John? “...See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.” (Rev 19:10) I am your brother; we are all brothers and messengers of God. As an angel is your brother, the duty we all have to perform is to address the other as brother. I am revealing this to you that you be not confused or worried by names. Let the name necromancer not disturb you; nor be disturbed by a person who claims to be a Roman Catholic member or a pagan. Only teach them this one thing; let the whole world know that we are all brethren. All those names are given by Him. As numerous as we are, we cannot bear a common name, but the different names do not prevent us from being brethren.

We are brothers and sisters but do not possess one and the same face. Our faces are different; they are not identical. God does not create two people of exactly the same kind. But this does not prevent us from being brothers and sisters. We are only one person; there is only one son. We have different races in this one son; the white, the black, the red, the yellow. This part is not as important; just know that we are only one flock. We are all that one man; but from this one man, came different gifts.

Some will become exasperated, some will take up machetes, some will take up hoes, some will tell lies, and some will dispense judgement. It is no other God; it is the same God who endows people with different gifts. Let this not confuse you into saying that such a person is not a child of God. What else can he be? You have to spread and preach this Gospel to every person to forsake the foolishness of calling oneself this or that. We are all brethren. The stones, water, and fishes are all brethren. Once we come to this knowledge, then fear and division, evil communications, and stealing will cease amongst us; in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Let our golden text be read. Listen to that text.

Golden Text: Galatians 3:28-29

"There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Brethren have you heard that? There is no more Jew nor Greek, circumcised nor uncircumcised, man nor woman, bond nor free. We are all one in our Lord Jesus Christ. How many children of God do you think exist? How many children does God have? It is only one child; that is why it is said that we are all, that one child. No matter how numerous as the sand we may be, we are only one flock, that one child. There is only one God in each and every one of us. We are therefore one person. It is only one God who is in the world; it is not two different Gods.

If you are made a treasurer; do not regard this position to mean that you are so greatly loved by God. If you are endowed with the gift of faith, do not count it to mean that you are righteous. He endows us with different gifts according to His wish, but it is the very God who is the embodiment of these virtues. It is a mark of foolishness for the leg to say that it has no business with the hand. The leg not being a hand does not prevent it from being one with the hand. It is foolishness for the eye to say that it has no business with the nose since it is not a nose. The hand, the leg and the eye cannot say to the stomach; "what is your duty? Always consuming food?" What will happen if the stomach should fail to consume food? Consider carefully, right from the hair on the head to the toes of your feet, whether there is any part which has no function to perform. So it is with us; as long as we do not unite and understand ourselves as brothers, then there will be no peace. This does not serve any useful purpose, but rather brings woe, sickness and death.

Take example from what obtains in the local government. When it is time to ask for amenities from the government, some will request for maternity homes, some others will request for technical colleges, others will request for pipe borne water, etc. Which requests will the government grant? The requests will be laid aside; none will be granted because it all shows signs of foolishness. The government will rather vote a certain amount of money for the local government. One person will claim to be the right person to receive the money; the other person will say, do not give to this man. The money will therefore be put into the bank; no proposal will be funded, and everyone will therefore suffer.

This is the punishment that besets the whole world. If we all should agree in principle that we are all one, brothers and sisters, and then love one another; that will be the end to our problems. We will have many things and there will be good health. However, when the Father chooses to send anything through any person for the benefit of mankind, all eyes will be on that one person; he will be accused and beaten in an attempt to exterminate him. What else will God do?

You are wishing that you should be the moon. If you become the moon, what will be your gain? The duty of the moon is to shine for us; it does not shine for itself; it is the Father's work that it performs. So it is with every one of us. The different gifts you are endowed with are not your bona-fide properties. They are for the common good; you must use them for the benefit of all. Let us therefore come together; let us no longer create division since we are all one in our Lord Jesus Christ. Those of you, who begrudge one another, should know that this Kingdom was established for you and me to enjoy equally.

It is not because of your righteousness; it is not because you honour God. It is not because we are worthy; but for the sake of Abraham and the promise of God, that He will give this world to Abraham and his descendants. If this promise was made for Abraham and his descendants, then the members of Ogboni society are his descendants. The Hindus, the Muslims, the Christians and all others; the murderers, the thieves are all descendants of Abraham; in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. If you say that a murderer has no share in this promise, or a thief has no right to it; and that a necromancer is an evil man, then I ask; for whom did our Lord Jesus Christ die? He died to save them so that they too may have a right to this promise.

And so Brethren, I do not intend to take you further than this. It is said that one stroke of the cane is sufficient for the wise. Any man who has ears to hear, let him hear. May God bless His Words, Amen.

Thank you Father!
